Volume 42 | October 10 2023 | WINTER 2024 REGISTRATION

Halloween, a Celtic celebration, is observed annually on the night of October 31st. It represents the light and dark halves of the year, when mortals and souls mingle with one another. If you decide to go trick-or-treating and wear a costume, enjoy this fun, spooky night!

Dear students,

Your course search begins on October 12, and we strongly recommend you register early as possible on your assigned date to maximize your chances of getting the courses you want. Remember, your education journey is a step towards your dreams, and we're here to support you every step of the way.

Global Cultural Highlights

In this edition of our newsletter, we're excited to spotlight some of the upcoming cultural events. With students from around the globe, we're fortunate to be part of a rich tapestry of traditions and celebrations. If you have other cultural events or celebrations to share with us, please let us know. We'd love to hear about them! Wishing everyone a joyous and culturally enriched October!

Happy Diwali! (India)

This Festival of Lights is a significant Hindu celebration symbolizing the triumph of light over darkness and good over evil. Families come together to light oil lamps, exchange gifts, and savor a variety of delicious sweets. This year, Diwali falls on November 12th, and our Indian students are eagerly anticipating this joyful occasion. If you know of local Diwali events, we'd love to join in the festivities!
